

6516205410.txt

We own a small trucking company and they are all equipped with XM satellite radio and depend on its traffic and weather channels to keep us informed on changing conditions nationwide. It is a very valuable tool that we utilize each day and we are urging the FCC to reject the NAB's petition 04-160.